AN EXTENSIVE DRIFTING.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Langham arrested Will Hess yesterday afternoon near the Poe Gas depot for beating two negro women with a board, which he ripped off a fence near the Poe Gas station for that purpose.

JOINT FREIGHT AGENT.

Under the new order of things between the Kay See and the Gulf and Interstate, Chas. Nelson will be joint freight agent with his office at the Gulf and Interstate depot. Mr. Nelson will take charge on the 15th, at which time John B. Wilson will sever his connection with the road. The Kay See depot will not be used as a depot after the 15th, but will be used exclusively for general offices.

One of the exhibits of the Philadelphia Export Exposition is a sample of kerosene, a product of crude petroleum, which represents the best chemical process obtainable in that substance. In other words, kerosene is a substance or chemically pure that no other product can be taken from it and leave a trace for further investigation. It has no commercial value, because of its purity, and for the further reason that it costs about $2000 to make a pint of it.

GOMPER'S DECLARATION.

New York, Oct. 10.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Following close up the declarations of labor leaders before the industrial commission in favor of trusts, Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, has written an editorial for the current number of the official organ of the federation, which may have an important effect in tending to prevent the trust issue from assuming importance as a political issue.

Mr. Gompers takes strong ground against any anti-trust legislation in any form. He says he is convinced that the government is not capable of preventing the legitimate development of natural concentration of industry, and that all the preparations to do so which have come to his observation would beyond doubt work greater injury upon the working people of the country than the trusts.

STREET DUEL IN NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 10.—There was a terrible street duel in front of newspaper row, on Camp street, this afternoon, in which Dominick O'Malley, proprietor of the Evening Item, and a well known promoter of sport, and C. Harrison Parker, state tax collector, chairman of the state democratic campaign committee and editor-in-chief of the Delta, the anti-lottery organ, during its existence, were both seriously wounded. The trouble is said to have originated over a cartoon in the item last Sunday, representing Colonel Parker as a little dog being led by a string by Governor Foster, and labeled, "Me, too."

About 3 o'clock this afternoon O'Malley came out of his office, accompanied by Parson Davies, and walked only a few yards when Parker, who was across the street conversing with some friends, turned and saw him. He started toward O'Malley, and the men appeared to know that trouble was expected, and began exchanging 45-caliber bullets, each firing until his pistol was empty. By the time the duel was over the men were only thirty feet apart, and each walked away to get attention. It was then found that each man had been hit twice. Parker received a ball in the side, which was a dangerous wound, and one in the shoulder. O'Malley was seriously wounded in the groin, and also received a bullet in the leg. A newsboy, fully a hundred feet away was shot in the head by one of O'Malley's bullets. The street was crowded with people at the time. The ball did not penetrate and the boy will recover. Both men are resting easy to-night, but it is too soon to guess definitely as to their chances of recovery.

Mr. O'Malley has been in several shuffling affairs, and Mr. Parker wounded Major A. E. Burke, then state treasurer, in a famous street duel in 1882.

WHERE DOES HE STAND?

Port Worth Mail-Telegram.

The senatorial contest between the friends of both Senator Chilton and Congressman Joe Bailey is waxing warm in this county, and the admirers of these two distinguished public men are turning heaven and earth in their advocacy.

From the present outlook there seems to be very little difference in the numerical strength of Chilton and Bailey, especially in Port Worth. County Attorney James W. Swayne is a strong supporter of Senator Chilton, while ex-District Clerk Robert McNatt is equally as ardent in his work for Joe Bailey.

Neither Swayne nor McNatt overlook an opportunity to lay before their friends the claims of their favorites. Yesterday Swayne and McNatt entered a compact by which the former will reverse his views and electioneer for Bailey in case he does not win in a bet made yesterday, and in case McNatt loses he agrees to renounce Bailey and put in his best efforts for Chilton to succeed himself. The wager entered into was on the proposition as to whether Lee Blanchette, a prominent politician of Beaumont, was for Bailey or for Chilton, Swayne contending that he (Blanchette) was a Chilton man while McNatt claims that he is a Bailey supporter. To decide the wager a letter was addressed Mr. Blanchette yesterday, and in the meantime both Swayne and McNatt are working tooth and toenail for their respective candidates. Considerable interest attaches to the bet among the local politicians.
